God chose you to be His people... You are God's special treasure. You are all these things so that you can give Him praise.

